

A small man, if he's small enough, buys our clothes at the price that larger men pay for "cheap" clothing.

Ridiculous! but you'd better not miss it.

This is young men's clothing (30 to 34 inches chest); quiet and fine--but here and there a suit or overcoat with a little extra "go" to it.

THREE STORES AT Prince Street, New York. Three stores at 320 St., New York.

ART LINENS.

We are continually adding the newest things to our stock of stamping designs and are therefore able to show at all times such a large and select assortment of Stamped Linens, Doyles, Centre Pieces, Tray Cloths, Tea Cloths, Scarfs, etc., as is scarcely obtainable elsewhere. The assortment of materials by the yard suitable for drawn work, embroidery, or other decoration is so great that we cannot begin to enumerate them all. Some of the most popular are the soft, silky "Old Satin," Crashes, Plain Satin Damask, Round Thread Belgian and Irish Linens, Momic Cloth, and Canvass of fine quality, Colored Linens, Chinese Grass Cloth, Linen Lows, Bolting Cloths, Huckabucks, Drills, Ducks, &c.

In the same department there will be found a full line of Embroidery Silks, Linen Flosses, and Threads, Embroidery Cottons, etc., of standard and makes.
